COURSES OF INSTRUCTION

A. Courses leading to the degree of Bachelor of Music

The Faculty of Music offers two three-year residence courses each leading to the degree of Bachelor of Music (Mus.Bac.): the course in General Music and the course in Music Education.

The course in General Music is designed to provide special training in either Composition, or History and Literature of Music. Graduates of this course may proceed to the degree of Doctor of Music in accordance with the requirements given on pages 40 to 42. If they are also graduates in Arts of an approved university they are eligible to enrol at the Ontario College of Education.

The course in Music Education is designed for the training of teachers of Music in secondary schools. Graduates of this course who desire to qualify as teachers of Music in secondary schools must spend a session at the Ontario College of Education. Full information regarding the requirements for admission to the Ontario College of Education may be found in the Calendar of the College.

B. Courses leading to the Artist and Licentiate diplomas

The Faculty of Music offers two three-year residence courses leading to the Artist and Licentiate diplomas of the Royal Conservatory of Music: the Performers course and the Teachers course.

The Performers (or Artist Diploma) course is designed to provide the necessary training for especially gifted singers, instrumentalists, organists, and composers who are sufficiently advanced to be able to prepare themselves, under the guidance of artist teachers, for a professional career.

The Teachers (or Licentiate) Course (in piano, violin and voice) combines vocal or instrumental training with specialized instruction in pedagogy and practice teaching to prepare the graduate for a career as a private teacher.

C. Courses leading to the degree of Master of Music

The Faculty of Music, through the School of Graduate Studies, offers residence courses leading to the degree of Master of Music (Mus.M.). The student will do advanced work in one of the following fields of concentration: Composition, History and Literature of Music (Musicology), Theory, or Music Education.

I. ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

A candidate for admission to all degree and diploma courses must have completed the sixteenth year of his age on or before the 1st of October of the year in which he applies for admission.

A. Degree Courses

Admission to the First Year

A candidate must submit his application for admission to the University Registrar at as early a date as possible and not later than September 1st, together with the certificates listed in (a) and (b) below or their equivalent:

(a) The Ontario Grade XIII Certificate showing an average of at least 60% in 7 or more papers (exclusive of Music). The selection of subjects must include:

1. English (2 papers)
2. Latin (2 papers) or Mathematics (2 papers)
3. A Language other than English (if Latin is not chosen above)

The remaining non-Music papers may be chosen from Mathematics, Science, History, or Languages (a single paper in a Language will not be accepted).

(b) Certificates of the School of Music of the Royal Conservatory of Music of Toronto

Grade VIII Practical in Piano (which includes Grade II Theory) and Grade III Harmony . . . or

Grade VI Practical in Piano, Grade VI Practical in another instrument or voice, Grade II Theory, and Grade III Harmony . . . or Grade VI Practical in Piano and Grade III Harmony with the Grade XIII Certificate in Music of the Department of Education of Ontario.

N. B.—Before graduation each student enrolled in the Music Education course must have passed the Grade X examination in any instrument or voice. This requirement will apply to students in the General Music course commencing with those receiving degrees in May of 1957.

Equivalent Certificates

The following certificates of examinations recognized as equivalent in value to the Ontario Grade XIII certificate, generally known as Senior Matriculation, may be accepted in so far as they meet the admission requirements of the University of Toronto in subjects and percentages and conform to the admission requirements of the universities of the respective provinces. A candidate applying for admission on such certificates must submit an official statement of the marks upon which these certificates were awarded.

New Brunswick, Newfoundland, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island—Senior Matriculation (Grade XII) certificate of the Common Examining Board or of their respective Departments of Education. Third Year certificate of Prince of Wales College or First Year Memorial University are also accepted from Prince Edward Island and Newfoundland respectively.

Quebec—The Quebec Senior High School Leaving certificate or the McGill University Senior School certificate.

Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta, British Columbia—The Senior Matriculation (Grade XII) certificate.

United Kingdom—General Certificate of Education showing at least 4 subjects (including English language) at ordinary level and 2 subjects appropriate to the course sought at advanced level.

United States—A U.S. High School Graduation Diploma will not admit to degree courses. First year college credits in the required subjects from approved institutions will be accepted as equivalent of Ontario Grade XIII.

Admission to Advanced Standing

A candidate for admission to the General Music course who is the holder of the Associate diploma of the School of Music of the Royal Conservatory of Music of Toronto in any musical subject and who has obtained honour standing in each of the theoretical papers for that diploma, may apply for admission to the second year. If admitted, the candidate will also be required to obtain standing in English 1a and 1b, and Physics 8 or their equivalent under conditions to be prescribed by the Council of the Faculty of Music.

A candidate applying for advanced standing must submit his application to the University Registrar at as early a date as possible and not later than September 1st together with the certificates listed in (a) on page 8 and a statement of the School of Music of the Royal Conservatory of Music showing that he has obtained the Associate diploma with the required honour standing in the theoretical papers.

A student who has failed to obtain standing in the first year of the General Music course shall thereby forfeit his future right to advanced standing based on the Associate diploma.

An undergraduate of another university may be admitted to advanced standing on such conditions as the Senate on the recommendation of the Council of the Faculty of Music may prescribe. Such an applicant must submit with his application for admission (1) his matriculation certificates; (2) an official transcript of his record in the university from which he wishes to transfer showing in detail the courses which he has completed with his standing in each, and showing that he has been granted honourable dismissal; (3) a calendar of the university giving a full description of the courses taken.

Admission to advanced standing in the Music Education course is granted only under exceptional circumstances.

B. Diploma Courses

A candidate for admission must submit his application to the Secretary of the Faculty of Music at as early a date as possible and not later than September 12.

Candidates for admission must submit evidence of the completion of a standard four-year high school course or a satisfactory equivalent.

Admission to the diploma courses for the academic year 1955–56 will be determined by examinations which will be held at the Royal Conservatory of Music in Toronto on May 17th and 18th, 1955 and September 13th and 14th, 1955. The requirements are as follows:

(a) Performance (pieces or songs only) similar to the requirements for the Associateship examination of the Royal Conservatory of Music (A.R.C.T.). Students of composition will be accepted after the examination and acceptance of original compositions.

(b) Theory. While no definite requirement in Theory is made for admission to diploma courses, candidates are strongly urged to obtain a minimum standard of Grade II Theory and Grade III Harmony of the School of Music of the Royal Conservatory of Music. Candidates having the suggested minimum standard will find later studies more meaningful, and may be given special consideration where applicants are of comparable ability as performers.

II. GENERAL REGULATIONS

1. Registration

Each student shall register with the Secretary of the Faculty not later than September 20th. He shall also register with the members of the teaching staff according to the dates listed on page 3. After this date, registration can be effected only by petition to the Council.

2. Vaccination

Each student must at the time of his medical examination by the University Health Service present evidence of successful vaccination or must be vaccinated by the attending physician.

3. Attendance

Each student enrolled in the Faculty of Music (degree and diploma courses) is required to be in full-time attendance at all prescribed lectures, classes, lessons and rehearsals.

4. Physical Education

In all degree courses Physical Education is compulsory for each man in his first twto years of attendance and for each woman in her first year of attendance.

5. Standing in the Year

To obtain standing in any year, a candidate may not fail more than two subjects, provided that the total number of hours does not exceed six in the subjects conditioned. A candidate who is conditioned at an annual examination in a subject indicated in italics in section V, pp. 17 to 25 must obtain standing in this subject at the supplemental examination in order to be eligible to enrol in the next higher year. Not more than one subject may be carried as a condition into the next higher year. A candidate must obtain complete standing in the First Year before he may register in the Third Year.

The Viva Voce examination in the Second Year of the Music Education Course is not considered a subject in determining the candidate's standing in the year and supplemental examinations may be arranged as required.

A student failing to obtain standing in a year's work will be permitted to repeat the year only once unless special permission is granted by the Council of the Faculty of Music.

6. Standing in a Subject

To receive credit in any Music subject, a candidate must obtain at a final or supplemental examination at least sixty per cent of the examination mark and at least sixty per cent of the aggregate of the term and examination marks.

To receive credit in an Arts subject, he must obtain at least fifty per cent at the final examination in the subject as well as fifty per cent of the aggregate of the term and examination marks. In order to obtain standing in English in any year, a candidate must obtain at least fifty per cent in the term work as well as at least fifty per cent at the final examination. A candidate whose term mark in English in any year is less than fifty per cent must obtain a satisfactory term mark in a subsequent academic year under conditions to be determined by the staff concerned, and subsequently must pass a supplemental examination in the subject.

7. Grades of Honours in the Year

First Class Honours—Eighty per cent and up
Second Class Honours—Seventy to seventy-nine per cent
Pass—Sixty to sixty-nine per cent.

8. Grades of Honours in a Subject

(a) Music Subjects:

First Class Honours—Eighty per cent and up
Second Class Honours—Seventy to seventy-nine per cent
Third Class Honours—Sixty to sixty-nine per cent

(b) Arts Subjects:

First Class Honours—Seventy-five per cent and up
Second Class Honours—Sixty-six to seventy-four per cent
Third Class Honours—Sixty to sixty-five per cent
Pass—Fifty to fifty-nine per cent.

9. Examinations

(a) Degree Courses

The annual examinations will take place at the University beginning on April 16. Applications for these examinations must be submitted to the Secretary by February 1st.

Supplemental examinations will be provided in August for candidates who are conditioned. These examinations will be held at the University and, except in the case of Viva Voce, Ear Training and Keyboard Harmony, at the following centres: Vancouver, Edmonton, Calgary, Saskatoon, Regina, Winnipeg, Kenora, Port Arthur, Sault Ste. Marie, Kapuskasing, North Bay, Kirkland Lake, Windsor, London, Kingston, Ottawa, Montreal, Quebec, Fredericton, Halifax, Charlottetown, St. John's (Nfld.). Permission to write at one of these centres must be requested when submitting the examination application. Candidates at outside centres will be required to pay the Presiding Officer's fee. Applications for the supplemental examniations must be sent to the Secretary by July 1st.

Note: Students are cautioned that, in courses where standing is granted on the basis of a term mark only, supplemental examinations are not usually provided. Failure to obtain standing in such subjects may make it necessary to repeat the course during a subsequent session. In some cases this would mean the student would be debarred from entering the next higher year until the condition was removed.

(b) Diploma Courses

The annual examinations will take place at the Royal Conservatory of Music of Toronto beginning on May 7. Supplemental examinations will be provided in September.

(c) All Courses

Representations on the part of candidates with regard to the examinations and applications for consideration on account of sickness, domestic affliction, or other causes, must be filed with the Secretary before the close of the annual or supplemental examination period together with doctor's certificates or other evidence.

10. Special Regulations in Diploma Courses

All students must obtain permission from the Director before accepting professional engagements or taking part in musical activities not in connection with the Royal Conservatory of Music and University, which occur during the academic year.

Assignment to teachers is at the discretion of the Director and no change in teacher will be permitted except at the beginning of a term.

Any student who withdraws from the Faculty of Music without the permission of the Director will not be permitted to register in the School of Music for the balance of the school year.

Each student in the First Year of the Artist and Licentiate Diploma courses must present himself at the end of the academic year for an examination in performance on his major instrument or in voice. Requirements for this examination will be determined by the Director in consultation with the representatives of the Piano, String, and Voice teachers. A student may, in addition to the examination, be given the opportunity of presenting a recital if recommended by his teacher.

Each student in the Second Year will be required to present a recital during the academic year, this recital to be evaluated by examiners and the results considered with those of the student's other subjects.

11. Graduation Requirements

A. General Music

For graduation, candidates, in addition to completing the course of study for the Third Year, must submit compositions or essays in accordance with (a) or (b) below:

(a) Composition: A piece for small orchestra (woodwind, horns, and strings); a movement for chamber ensemble in sonata, rondo, or variation form; a part-song for four voices unaccompanied; a song for solo voice with piano accompaniment.

(b) Music History and Literature: two essays the subjects of which must be submitted to the Council for approval not later than November 1st.

These compositions or essays, which will be taken into account in determining the student's final standing, must be sent in duplicate to the Secretary of the Faculty not later than April 2nd. If approved by the Faculty they cannot be returned to the student, but will be deposited in the libraries of the University and the Royal Conservatory of Music.

NOTE: The Grade X requirement mentioned under section B below will apply to students in the General Music course commencing with those receiving degrees in May of 1957.

B. Music Education

Before graduation each student enrolled in the Music Education Course must have passed the Grade X examination of the School of Music of the Royal Conservatory of Music in any instrument or voice.

C. Diploma Courses

General Requirements

For graduation, candidates must have passed their final examinations in all secondary subjects; at a viva voce examination they must be prepared to answer questions on the composers and works included in their repertoire.

Special Requirements for the different courses are as follows:

(a) Courses leading to the Artist diploma

Piano —to give two complete recitals . . . or to give one recital and one concerto performance with orchestra.

*Strings —to give two complete recitals . . . or to give one recital, one concerto performance with orchestra and one ensemble performance.

*N.B. A Brass or Woodwind instrument can be substituted as major subject.

Singing —to give two complete recitals . . . or to give one recital and to sing a major role in an operatic production.
Organ —to give two complete recitals.
Composition —to submit a symphonic work scored for full orchestra.

(b) Courses leading to the Licentiate diploma
—to prepare two recital programs, one to be given in public.
—to pass a viva voce examination on teaching methods including demonstration lessons.

III. FEES, BURSARIES AND SCHOLARSHIPS FEES

A student who has been admitted to the Faculty of Music is required to pay at least the first term instalment of fees on or before the opening date of the session, and before applying to the Secretary of the Faculty for his card of admission to lectures. The amount of the first term instalment of fees or of the total fee may be ascertained from the schedule below.

The second term instalment of fees, if not already paid, is payable on or before January 20th. After this date, an additional fee of $1.00 a month will be imposed until the whole amount is paid. All fees for the session must have been paid in full before the student can receive his pseudonym for the final examination.

Fees must be paid to the Accountant of the Royal Conservatory of Music of Toronto.

VI. DESCRIPTION OF SUBJECTS

Theory and Composition

Harmony 1a. Diatonic harmony up to four parts, including secondary dominants and simple modulation. Melodic writing for voices and instruments with special application to the technique of the ground bass and the chorale style of J. S. Bach. Two hours a week.

Harmony 2a. Chromatic harmony in four and five parts based on 19th century harmonic technique. This will include the material of seventh chords, altered chords and advanced modulation. String quartet and song accompaniments will receive special study. Two hours a week.

Harmony 3a. (Withdrawn after 1955–1956) Harmony in not more than five parts; vocal, pianoforte, and string writing, including free composition. One hour a week.

Harmony, Counterpoint and Ear Training 1b. Sight-singing and rhythmic reading, clef reading, melodic, rhythmic, and harmonic dictation, paralleling the concurrent study of harmony and counterpoint. Harmony in four parts, using all triad types, the dominant seventh, and secondary seventh chord types as found in the Bach technique. Counterpoint in two parts. Five hours a week.

Harmony, Counterpoint, and Ear Training 2b. Sight-singing and rhythmic reading. Advanced melodic and rhythmic dictation; advanced clef reading. Two- and three-part contrapuntal dictation. Functional recognition of advanced harmonic progressions and non-harmonic materials. Four-part harmony, using triads, seventh chords, non-harmonic materials, and altered chords. Counterpoint in three and four voices. Five hours a week.

Harmony, Counterpoint and Ear Training 1d. Harmony: Four part writing based on triads, dominant 7th, 9th and 13th chords. Melodic writing for voices and instruments. Simple modulation. Composition in small forms for voice, violin and woodwind instruments with piano accompaniment. Harmonic analysis of selected works from student's repertoire. Counterpoint: Two part writing. Ear Training: Harmonic, melodic and rhythmic dictation. Three hours a week.

Harmony, Counterpoint and Ear Training 2d. Harmony: Study of chromatic harmony and altered chords. Composition in simple forms. Harmonic analysis of contemporary literature. Elementary orchestration and score reading. Counterpoint: Two part canon. Ear Training: Based on advanced harmony. Three hours a week.

Keyboard Harmony 2a. Transposition, score reading, modulation at the keyboard. One hour a week.

Keyboard Harmony 3a. A continuation of Keyboard Harmony 2a. One hour a week.

Keyboard Harmony 1b. Playing of cadence types. Modulation to closely related keys. Sight-harmonization of simple folk tunes and chorale melodies. Realization of figured bass, including triads with all their inversions and seventh chords. Elementary transposition. Two-part score reading using five clefs. One hour a week.

Keyboard Harmony 2b. Chromatic and sudden modulation to foreign keys employing four- and eight-bar periods. Sight harmonization of more advanced folk tunes, chorale melodies, and other songs. Realization of more advanced figured bass and classical recitative types, employing non-harmonic materials and altered chords. More advanced transposition. Three-part score reading. One hour a week.

Keyboard Harmony 3b. Improvisation of eight- and sixteen-bar periods as well as short pieces using advanced modulation. Sight harmonization in free style. Realization of continuo bass in 18th century style; Transposition of advanced harmonic music of the 18th and 19th centuries. Score reading in four and more parts, including simple string quartets and Haydn and Mozart symphony scores. One hour a week.

Keyboard Harmony 2d. Cadences, figured basses; Harmonization of single melodies. Transposition, C clefs, elementary score reading. Two hours a week.

Keyboard Harmony 1e, 2e, 3e. Similar to Keyboard Harmony 2d but with special emphasis on problems peculiar to the organist, particularly modulation, improvisation, etc. One hour a week.

Counterpoint 1a. Sixteenth century counterpoint in the style of Palestrina. Two-, three- and four-part counterpoint with given canto fermo. Invertible counterpoint, imitations and canon. Writing of motets, madrigals, excerpts of masses and other examples in the style of the sixteenth century. Study of the styles of Palestrina and the Tudor School composers. One hour a week.

Counterpoint 2a. Eighteenth century contrapuntal technique. Free counterpoint in three and four parts in the style of the keyboard invention and chorale prelude. Canon in two parts with or without an independent part; double counterpoint at the octave and fifteenth. Introduction to fugal writing. One hour a week.

Counterpoint 3a. (Withdrawn after 1955–1956). Counterpoint in not more than five parts in free style, and in the style of Palestrina and the Tudor writers; canon in two parts with or without an independent part. Two hours a week.

Fugue 3a. Fugue in not more than four parts, for keyboard, strings or voices. One hour a week.

Theory 3d.

A theory course designed to enable the student to pass the examinations of the Canadian College of Organists, the American Guild of Organists and the Royal College of Organists. Three hours a week.

Ear Training 1a. Recognition of diatonic intervals, keynote given; rhythmic dictation; melodic dictation; recognition, in continuous examples, of the following chords in root position and first inversion: Tonic (plus second inversion), Dominant, Subdominant, Submediant, Mediant, Supertonic (in minor key, Supertonic in first inversion only), Leading Note (first inversion only), Dominant Discords (with the inversions) to the dominant ninth; elementary modulation; two-part harmonic dictation. One hour a week.

Ear Training 2a. More advanced rhythmic and melodic dictation; elementary modulation; dictation of a simple contrapuntal passage in two parts; dictation of three and four part chords, singly and in short phrases. One hour a week.

Ear Training 3b. Melodic and rhythmic dictation. Contrapuntal dictation. Advanced musical dictation in classical formal context. One hour a week.

Composition 2a. Musical composition for students in the General Music course as a Subject of Special Study. One hour a week.

Composition 3a. A continuation of Composition 2a. One hour a week.

Orchestration 1c. Scoring for various combinations of woodwinds, horns, strings and timpani. Problems of transcription and arranging. One hour a week.

Orchestration 2c. Scoring for the large orchestra. Study of selected scores. One hour a week.

Orchestration 3d. Composing and scoring for various instrumental combinations. Problems of radio and film. One hour a week.

Style Study 3d. Stylistic analysis of the most significant pieces in the piano and string repertoire. Problems of phrasing, bowing and ornamentation; discussion and comparison of editions and trends of interpretation. One hour a week.

Stylistic Analysis and Arranging 3b. Analyses of the styles of composers subsequent to the 18th century. Discussion of assigned readings in contemporary attitudes and viewpoints. Orchestration in general; methods of arranging set numbers for limited vocal and instrumental groups. Three hours a week.

Score Reading 1d. String quartet and simple orchestral score reading. Transposition. Use of C clef. Piano reduction of orchestral scores. One hour a week.

Score Reading 2d. Vocal scores in four and more parts. Realization of figured bass. One hour a week.

Sight Reading 1d. The reading and study of solo pieces, accompaniments, duets, of symphonies and overtures arranged for two pianos. One hour a week.

String Literature. A survey of string music from Bach to the present day with special emphasis on style, interpretation and program building. One hour a week.

Conservatory Symphony Orchestra. The Conservatory Symphony Orchestra affords practice in orchestral routine and training. Rehearsals are held weekly; the orchestra appears in students' concerts and recitals.

Chamber Orchestra. The Chamber Orchestra will specialize in works for smaller combinations and suitable selections from the operatic repertoire.

University Symphony Orchestra. The University Symphony Orchestra provides ensemble experience through regular weekly rehearsals during the academic year. Membership is open to any musically qualified undergraduate of the University.

Teaching Courses

Class Teaching Methods 3d. The technique of teaching piano, stringed instruments or voice in group lessons. One hour a week.

Practice Teaching 2d, 3d. During the last two years of the Licentiate diploma course candidates are required to teach at least one pupil, the teaching to be supervised, demonstration lessons to be given.

Psychology 1d. General principles of psychology as they are related to teaching. An outline of the psychology of music. One hour a week.

Teaching Methods 1d, 2d, 3d. The teaching of piano, violin or voice. Lesson procedures and methods. Teaching materials. 1d one hour a week, 2d and 3d two hours a week.

Miscellaneous

Conducting 2c. Principles of baton technique. Conducting of simple vocal and instrumental scores. Special attention to the interpretation of condensed scores. One hour a week.

Conducting 3c. A continuation of the course listed above. Special reference to conducting from full score. One hour a week.

Viva Voce 3a. Each student enrolled in the Third Year of General Music will be required to present himself at the end of the academic year for an oral examination at which he will be asked questions of a general nature, and covering in particular a critical and analytical knowledge of the following scores:

Sibelius: Symphony No. 4, A minor, Op. 63 (Breitkopf & Härtel)
Josquin des Pres: Missa "Da Pacem" (Möseler Verlag Wolfenbüttel).

He will also be required:

(a) To transpose a simple piece at sight;
(b) To read at sight from a full score of a date not later than Mendelssohn;
(c) To modulate at the keyboard.

N.B. Students should also read the section covering graduation requirements on pages 13 and 14.

Viva Voce 2b. Each student enrolled in the Second Year of Music Education will be required to present himself at the end of the session before a faculty committee for an oral examination. This examination will aim at ascertaining the candidate's knowledge of and special interests in music. Any candidate failing in this examination will be asked to present himself for a supplemental examination at the end of the Third Year.

VII. GENERAL INFORMATION

Students in the Faculty of Music have at their disposal the facilities of both the University of Toronto and the Royal Conservatory of Music. The main buildings of the Conservatory are centrally located adjoining the University campus.

Instruction in academic subjects is given by the staff of the Faculty of Arts, largely at University College. Music courses and individual lessons are given by the staff of the Faculty of Music at the Royal Conservatory.

The Conservatory main building, together with its adjoining annexes, contains the administrative offices, classrooms, eighty-two studios for teaching and practice, three practice organs, the Concert Hall and Recital Hall, two lecture halls, the library and listening room, a music sales counter and a cafeteria.

The Library has an extensive collection of books, scores, periodicals, and reference material, while the Faculty of Music maintains separate libraries of chorus, band, and orchestra music. The listening room is equipped with seven turntables with earphone attachments so that students may take advantage of the large collection of phonograph recordings.

Modern audio-visual equipment including phonographs, tape recording machines, and film projectors is used in teaching. The Faculty owns over 100 string, woodwind, brass, and percussion instruments for the use of students in music education classes.

The Concert and Placement Bureau arranges concerts across the Dominion for the Conservatory's leading students and recent graduates, both singers and instrumentalists. Requests are filled for oratorio and operatic soloists, choristers, organists, accompanists, and musical performers in all categories. The Bureau also fills teaching positions and arranges for summer employment.

Students may take advantage of the varied activities of the University and Conservatory including lectures, recitals and concerts, dramatic productions, and athletic and social events. Valuable performing experience may be gained through membership in the University and Conservatory Symphony Orchestras, the University Chorus, as well as through professional organizations such as the CBC Opera Company the Opera Festival, and the Mendelssohn Choir.

The musical season in Toronto provides an unusual opportunity to hear outstanding organizations and artists; performances of the Opera Festival and Toronto Symphony Orchestra being of special note. Arrangements can be made for special reduced rates of admission for many musical events.

The Undergraduate Association of the Faculty of Music

The Undergraduate Association is the official undergraduate organization in the Faculty of Music. Its membership consists of all resident students.

The object of the Association, as stated in its Constitution, is "to promote the interests of undergraduates in the Faculty of Music, to cultivate relations between the faculty and the student body, to encourage the participation of the student body in University activities, and to further goodwill among the members themselves."

The officers are elected annually and consist of the President, the Vice-President, the Secretary, the Students' Administrative Council representative and an Executive Committee composed of members representing each year and course. One member of the faculty is chosen annually by the officers of the Association to act as an adviser to the Association.

VIII. LIVING ACCOMMODATION

Women Students' Residence

The Conservatory Residence is directly connected to the main building and provides accommodation and meals for more than fifty women students. Application for residence accommodation for 1955–1956 should be made as early as possible, accompanied by a deposit of $20.00 which will be applied against fees. Students are required to register for accommodation and meals for the period from September 6, 1955 to June 23, 1956 unless special permission is granted otherwise. Students of the Faculty of Music will, however, be allowed a reduction of fees to cover the cost of meals not taken, if not in residence beyond the time required for their courses.

Fees for the academic year vary from $580 to $600 for the ten-month period, depending on the accommodation required. Fees are payable in advance every two months commencing October 1 in three equal instalments of $135 to $140 with a final instalment on April 1. Fees do not cover laundry service, but a laundry room is available for the use of students.

The residence is closed during the Christmas vacation and arrangements must be made for accommodation elsewhere during that period.

Other Living Accommodation

For other living accommodation inquiry may be made from the following sources:

Women (Residences maintained by the various Arts Colleges): University College—Dean of Women; Victoria College—Dean of Women; Trinity College—Registrar; St. Michael's College—Head, St. Joseph's College, Queen's Park or Head, Loretto College, 86 St. George Street.

IX. REGULATIONS FOR THE DEGREE OF MASTER OF MUSIC

1. Admission Requirements

Candidates for the degree of Master of Music must register with the Secretary of the School of Graduate Studies not later than October 1st.

They shall hold the degree of Bachelor of Music (Mus.Bac.) of the University of Toronto or a degree recognized as equivalent by the Council of the School of Graduate Studies.*

Students whose chosen area of concentration is composition must, in making application for admission, submit with their academic credentials two or more specimens of original composition, to show their aptitude for the work of this course.

Students whose chosen area of concentration is music education must have successfully completed the course for High School Assistants' certificate (music option) in the Ontario College of Education or its equivalent.

(Note: Candidates for the degree of Master of Music are required to observe the general regulations contained in the Calendar of the School of Graduate Studies.)

2. Attendance

Before being recommended for the degree, graduate students are required to be in attendance at the University for two regular sessions; except that:

Students who have successfully completed the Honours Course in Music of this University, holding the degree of B.A., may be enrolled provisionally and will be required to complete such pre-requisite work as the Master of Music Committee may prescribe. Upon completion of all pre-requisite requirements the student will be enrolled as a candidate for the degree; he will be eligible for the Departmental examinations only after all pre-requisite requirements have been fulfilled.*

Students who hold the degree of Mus.Bac. in Music Education of this University and have successfully completed the course for the High School Assistants' certificate (music option) in the Ontario College of Education or its equivalent are required to be in attendance at the University for one session only, provided they choose music education as their area of concentration.

3. Programme of Study

Candidates for the degree are required (1) to complete a programme of study approved by the Committee administering the degree, (2) to prepare a thesis or a music exercise and (3) to pass an oral examination on questions of a general nature, as well as on questions relative to the subject matter of the thesis.

Students will choose one of the following areas of concentration around which their programme of study will be planned:

Composition

X. REGULATIONS FOR THE DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF MUSIC

Candidates for the degree of Doctor of Music who are Bachelors of Music of the University of Toronto and who have satisfied the examiners in submission of a musical exercise other than a thesis, must register before October 1st. They can not, however, register earlier than the session of the calendar year following that of their graduation as Bachelors.

Applicants who hold the degree of Bachelor of Music from universities other than Toronto and holders of the same degree from the University of Toronto who have not submitted an exercise in the form of a composition must, in making application for admission, submit along with their academic credentials, two or more specimens of original composition such as will serve to show their aptitude for the work of this course. Applications from such candidates must be submitted to and approved by the Mus.Doc. Committee of the School of Graduate Studies. Applications for such admission should be accompanied by a full statement and evidence of academic standing and should reach the Secretary of the School of Graduate Studies not later than October 1st of the year in which the candidates wish to register.

(Note: Candidates for the degree of Doctor of Music are required to observe the general regulations contained in the Calendar of the School of Graduate Studies.)

The requirements are two: (1) written and oral examinations (see paragraph 1 below); (2) a musical exercise (see paragraph 2 below). The exercise may not be submitted until after both written and oral examinations have been passed.

1. (a) The written examinations will include the following:

Harmony and Composition in not more than eight parts;

Counterpoint (including free composition) in not more than eight parts. A knowledge of the style of the 16th century English and Italian schools will be required;

Fugue in not more than four parts, vocal and instrumental;

Orchestration;

History of Music.

(b) The oral examination will include questions of a general nature and questions relative to the critical and analytical knowledge of the following scores:

Beethoven: String Quartet in C sharp Minor, op. 131 (Boosey and Hawkes or any standard edition)

Strawinsky: Symphonie de Psaumes (revised edition 1948) (Boosey and Hawkes)

The examinations will take place in Toronto in April or at times to be fixed by the Senate. The candidate will be allowed to repeat those papers in which he does not reach the required standard, provided that the number of those papers, including the oral, does not exceed two.

2. The exercise should require at least 30 minutes in performance and may be in the nature of one of the following:

(a) A cantata—this to include an overture, choruses, parts for one or more solo voices, and full orchestral accompaniment;

(b) A work for full orchestra in cyclic form;

(c) An orchestral tone-poem.

Two bound copies of the exercise must be submitted to the Secretary of the School of Graduate Studies not later than the first of April of any year following that in which the candidate has passed the written examination, accompanied by a declaration that it is the candidate's own unaided work.

The exercise, if accepted by the Committee, cannot be returned to the candidate. One copy must be deposited in the University library and the second in the library of the Royal Conservatory of Music of Toronto. If a candidate wishes to keep a copy of his exercise, he should make arrangements accordingly before submitting his work in duplicate to the Secretary.

First year of registration	Academic Fee $100.00
Re-registration each succeeding year .	Academic Fee $25.00
